(MENAFN - Muscat Daily) Al Hail School of Cricket, run by cricket promoter and administrator Moula Bakhsh al Balushi, has launched its second branch in Muscat following the success of its facility at Al Hail, according to a press release from chief development officer, Rafeeq al Balushi.

The new branch, comprising playing and practice facilities, has been established at Oman Club in Al Khuwayr and it will be headed by ICC Level 2 coach Abdul Ghani al Balushi.

He will be accompanied by Level 1 coach Ismail al Balushi. Mohammed Aslam and Mohammed Ali complete the coaching unit.

ISC TT tournament starting on April 15

Indian Social Club, Muscat, will organise the annual table tennis tournament for its members from April 15. The deadline for submission of entries is April 12.

The tournament is open to members of the club and its linguistic wings. The event includes men's singles and doubles, veterans' singles, women's singles, junior singles for boys and girls U10, U13, U15 and U17 years, junior doubles, mixed doubles and family doubles.

Indian School Muscat sweeps U13, U11 titles

Indian School Muscat (ISM) defeated Indian School Wadi Kabir (ISWK) in the final to win the U13 crown, while the younger boys from ISM clinched the U11 title by beating ISWK in the final of the MCCC Maxtalent Cup 2017 at Al Amerat recently. Kanak Khimji, Oman Cricket chairman, and Duleep Mendis, OC's chief development officer, gave away the prizes.
