Al Hail School of Cricket appoints Aslam as head coach

Cricket · Sports

26 May 2016

BIG PLANS: Head coach Mohammed Aslam pictured at the Al Hail School of Cricket.

MUSCAT: Al Hail School of Cricket has appointed former player and experienced coach Mohammed Aslam as the head coach of the academy. Mohammed Aslam has been involved with Oman cricket from 1998 and represented the country in various international events.

Moula Bakhsh Al Balushi of Al Hail Club said: "We are extremely pleased to engage the services of Mohammed Aslam over the last three years. Now we have appointed him as the head coach of our Al Hail School of Cricket."

"Aslam has brought a number of new ideas and has helped implement our vision for the academy. He is a very enthusiastic and hands-on-coach, whose wealth of coaching experience is proving very beneficial for our cricket academy. We have big plans for our academy which we are confident can be implemented successfully with his help."

Mohammed Aslam, who played in Oman Cricket A Division League from 1998 to 2004, played for the national team in the Gulf Cup and also played World Cup Qualifying Tournament at Ireland in 2005.

He also went on to represent Oman in the 2006 ACC Trophy in Malaysia.

A Level 2 coach and a Coach Educator, Aslam coached age group teams before serving Oman team as head coach between 2005 and 2012. He also worked as assistant coach of the team in 2012.

While thanking present Oman Cricket General Secretary Madhu Jesrani and former board member late Madhu Sampat for his association with the Sultanate cricket, he said: "I would like to thank Moula Baksh for giving me an opportunity to coach the Al Hail School of Cricket. I am enjoying my work as the academy and Moula working with a vision to develop local cricketers and encourage young talents."

Describing the academy as the best in Oman and the Middle East, he said: "I have some big plans for the future. We would like to use modern technology and modern training methods to groom local talents."